Good Earth Coffeehouse, Compass Group Canada and Groupe Compass Québec open first Montreal location in one of Canada's largest hospitals – CHUM (Centre hospitalier de l'Université de Montréal)

MONTREAL – (July 15, 2019) – Something good is brewing in Montreal! This weekend, Good Earth Coffeehouse joined with Compass Group Canada and Groupe Compass Québec to open its 51st café in CHUM, one of Canada's largest hospitals. This is the first Café Good Earth to open in Quebec.

"Compass Group Canada and Groupe Compass Québec are pleased to open a Café Good Earth in CHUM," Stéphane Beauchemin, Executive Vice President, Groupe Compass Québec. "We have enjoyed a mutually beneficial partnership with Good Earth and know our hospital clientele will fall in love with what Good Earth has to offer."

 "Good Earth is excited to enter into the Quebec market with our partners Compass Group Canada and Groupe Compass Québec," says Gerry Docherty, President & COO, Good Earth Coffeehouse. "We look forward to sharing a cup of 'good' with hospital staff, patients, visitors and neighbours." Café Good Earth provides a community gathering place to enjoy ethically sourced coffee and fresh, wholesome food within CHUM – open to serve clientele 24 hours a day.

Good Earth is hosting a grand opening party on Wednesday, September 4th to celebrate the CHUM location. The official ribbon cutting ceremony is at 10:00 AM. This event is open to the public and will include free brewed coffee all day, live music, and delicious food and beverage samples. CHUM is located at 1115, rue Sanguinet. Café Good Earth is situated inside CHUM near the Clocher de L'église Saint-Sauveur on St. Denis Street in Montreal.

Relationships remain as much a cornerstone of Good Earth's brand as exceptional coffee and good food. Good Earth looks forward to further contributing to the Montreal community. For more information about Good Earth, please visit www.goodearthcoffeehouse.com.

About Good Earth Coffeehouse:
Good Earth is a network of authentic coffeehouses with 51 locations throughout Alberta, British Columbia, Saskatchewan, Manitoba, Quebec, and Ontario. The first Good Earth Coffeehouse opened in Calgary in 1991. Founders Nan Eskenazi and Michael Going began with a desire to serve exceptional coffee and wholesome food with a down-to-earth attitude.
